Statement of Objects and Reasons

The Legislative Diploma No. 2070 dated 15-04-1961, commonly known as “Code of Comunidades” is a self-contained code dealing extensively with all aspects of the constitution, administration and functioning of Comunidade bodies in Goa. However it is prudent and necessary for this pre-liberation legislation to keep with the times and enable the unique age-old bodies to meet present-day challenges with a view to making them robust and partners in the State’s progress.

Section 2 seeks repeal of an otiose provision in force over fifty years after liberation, while replacing it with prescription of minimum educational qualifications for its members of the Comunidade office to ensure its effective functioning, in the spirit of the principal Act.

Section 3 seeks to entitle managing committee members of the Comunidade to be re-elected for another term of three years.

Section 4 seeks to disqualify dismissed attorneys from holding any office in the Comunidade for six years.

Sections 5, 6 and 7 are amendments based on recommendations made at the Convention of Comunidades of Goa held at Panaji on 30th October, 2009 under Article 652 pursuant to directions of Hon’ble High Court in Writ Petition No. 406/2009 (Celestino Noronha and others v/s State of Goa and others).

Section 5 seeks to empower Comunidade attorneys to remove illegal encroachments on its lands albeit subject to orders to this effect by the competent authority or court having attained finality.

Section 6 seeks to restore the spirit of the original provisions of the principal Act while ensuring administrative autonomy and reducing the financial burden on Comunidades of high salaries of civil service officers on the Comunidades.

In true democratic spirit, Section 7 seeks to introduce direct participation of Comunidades in the affairs of their zonal administration whose expenses and upkeep is met solely from their financial contributions.

Section 8 seeks to remove the disparity between the members of the Comunidade in matters of grant of Comunidade land without auction, enabling landless qualified (able) shareholders to such grant, alongwith the jonoeiros.

Sub-section (i) of Section 8 enables landless persons residing in the concerned village to be granted Comunidade land without auction, recognizing the historical fact that Comunidade lands are village lands held in common over the centuries.

Section 9 seeks to grant extension of time to persons in unauthorized occupation of or wrongful possession of Comunidade land on or before 15-06-2000 but who were unable to apply for regularization earlier for various reasons, while retaining the primacy of the Comunidade in decisions relating to regularization of encroachments on its lands.

Financial Memorandum

No financial memorandum is envisaged.

Memorandum Regarding Delegated Legislation

Section 7 empowers the Government to make rules for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of the proposed enactment.

The delegated legislation is of normal character.
